5 August 2020, Kuala Lumpur – Great Eastern Takaful and Masjid Muhammad Al Fateh, Kem Wardieburn together celebrated Aidiladha by giving back to the community. Great Eastern Takaful had the opportunity to contribute two cows.

Aidiladha also known as Hari Raya Qurban is a feast of unity, gratitude and love among people with lots of rizq (blessing) for sharing on this special occasion. As we know, Aidiladha commemorates Prophet Ibrahim's faith towards Allah SWT commandments.

Great Eastern Takaful Chief Executive Officer, Shahrul Azlan Shahrman who attended along with volunteers from the takaful company, said: "Alhamdulillah GETB managed to contribute qurban this year with the intention to distribute to the community in Kem Wardieburn on this blessed day. We are very honoured to work with representatives from Masjid Muhammad Al Fateh and Kem Wardieburn, Wangsa Maju to distribute qurban to families in need. Activities such as this is in line with our corporate values, which is to share with our community.

"We would like to thank everyone at Kem Wardieburn for this opportunity to celebrate Aidiladha together," Shahrul added.
